

Award Criteria for the Distinguished Service Award

The recipient must have made significant accomplishments in improving the administration of justice in the insolvency and bankruptcy field:

1. The recipient must have provided distinguished service consistently rendered over a considerable period of time or a single outstanding achievement in a particular year. (The fact that a single achievement may have occurred before the year of recognition is not material.);
2. The accomplishments must arise from voluntary activities rather than for services rendered to a client as a paid professional. (This is not intended to exclude members of the judiciary, Congress, or the academic community.);
3. The recipient shall be a member of the American College of Bankruptcy;
4. The recipient must distinguish himself or herself or his or her institution in a manner and in matters that are consistent with the goals and purposes of the College; and
5. Participation in or service to the College will be considered when reviewing candidates for the award.
